The Path of Mercy Seeking Truth

To seek truth is a unique quest to understand self and self for others. It challenges us to consider our talents, purpose and responsibilities in pursuing truth and goodness.

This session takes us back to the original story of Catherine McAuley and her ardent dream of Mercy. What did it mean to Catherine to be the hands and feet of Jesus? What does it mean for us to walk in Catherine's footsteps and realise the vision of Mercy in our schools and communities today?

Keynote speaker

Caroline Thompson

Thursday 30 May
7.00pm to 8.30pm via Zoom

Caroline Thompson EdD is the Director of Formation for Mercy Partners and occupies an executive position providing leadership and strategic direction for formation opportunities.

Author of 'Be as shining lamps', Caroline writes on preserving, nurturing and reimagining the Mercy charism for our current context. Caroline is a member of extensive committees and reference groups, contributes as a critical partner and formation leader, has spoken widely at staff conferences and plenaries and is passionate about the enlivening of Mercy today.
