REFLECTION

© Nick Brodie

Pope Leo says that 'we should set aside moments of silence, moments of prayer, times in which, quieting noise and distractions, we recollect ourselves before God in simplicity of heart.'

'This', he adds, 'is a dimension of the Christian life that we particularly need to recover today, both as a value for individuals and communities, and as a prophetic sign for our times.' Such silence and reflectiveness, the Pope suggests, helps us prioritise our 'relationship with God'. But such disposition should also, he adds, 'help us to be more open, more welcoming to others.'

This active dimension of Christian contemplation is something the Pope wants us to remember. Even in our recreational moments, he suggests, we can find 'an opportunity to care for others, to get to know each other and to offer advice and a listening ear.' Caring and listening, he reminds us, 'are expressions of love, and that is something we all need.' We should therefore all love 'with courage'. As the Pope points out, such active love is transformative, because 'through solidarity, in the sharing of faith and life, we will help to promote a culture of peace.' Each of us, therefore, should respond to the Lord's call to start 'helping those around us to overcome divisions and hostility and to build communion.'

RCIA UPDATE This weekend, on the First Sunday of Lent, our parish Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA) group will travel to the annual “Rite of Election” ceremony at St Patrick’s Cathedral, along with other Catechumens and Candidates from across the Archdiocese. Presided over by Archbishop Peter A. Comensoli, the event is a milestone for those preparing to receive the sacraments of initiation at Easter. With their godparents, sponsors, families and other parishioners, the catechumens and candidates will declare their intention to join the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil this year.

As part of your Lenten commitment, we invite you to regularly pray for our parish’s Catechumens and Candidates – Camila, Cassandra, Daniel F., Daniel W., David, Elly, Gayathri, Kim, Lawrence, Liezel, Melissa, Neve, Sarah, Sean, Tamika and Tomas – as they prepare for baptism and/or full initiation into the Catholic Church.

WALKING TOGETHER - Pilgrimage of Justice

Acting for Justice Fr John Petrus was appointed Episcopal Vicar for Justice and Social Services for the Archdiocese of Melbourne in 2025. In this role, he is listening to and supporting the many ways parishes and Catholic social services respond to the needs of our local communities.

As part of Walking Together, Acting for Justice, the Archdiocese will soon launch an initiative on www.melbournecatholic.org entitled, Pilgrimage of Justice. Under this banner, we hope to share stories of justice, service and faith in action from across parishes and agencies. Parishioners, groups and ministries are warmly invited to share stories of hope - whether a long-standing outreach, a new initiative, or a quiet act of accompaniment that reflects the Gospel in action. Stories can be shared via John.Petrulis@cam.org.au.

Together, we continue our pilgrimage - listening, serving and acting for justice.
